Well done to all those who were awarded Star of the Week. There have been some very creative pupils this week, working with concentration to produce artwork based on the paintings of Georgia O'Keeffe. Others have been working hard at their writing and at not being distracted. There have also been some lovely members of the class who follow the class rules.

Value of the Term

How do you have fun at school?

What do you enjoy doing?

Attendance

We are on the up again as a whole school, but are still not quite in the green yet.

We would just like to remind families that the school is not allowed to authorise holidays in school term time except in very exceptional circumstances. If a child has absences of over 15 days in a term County will expect us to consider imposing fines and we would really like to avoid this.

Well done all those classes who have made the improvement in their attendance.

Skipping Workshop

All the children involved in these workshops had a great time. I hope they will continue to use the skills they learned and maybe show off to their parents and carers!

Sun Hats and Sun Cream

As the weather gets hotter can we remind you that named sun hats need to be brought in and worn at playtimes. We also ask that you apply sun cream to the children before the start of school; there are some great 'all day' sun creams available. The teachers are not able to re-apply sun cream to the children during the day as there are up to 30 children in the class and this would be very time consuming. If there are any reasons that your child needs to re-apply cream during the day please discuss it with the class teacher and if needed, teach your child how to do this themselves without supervision.

Book of Excellence

Mia is our first entry from the Nursery - well done. She carefully coloured a beautiful butterfly and then went away to independently write the word.

Random Fact of the week

Researchers placed an exercise wheel in the wild and found it was used extensively by mice without any reward for using it.
