

Practise writing each word using your cursive writing and then put it into your own sentence.

(Please note, the children's letters do not need to be joined together until they can form all the letters correctly on their own).

floor

child

because

climb